The Night Bazaar Chiang Mai is occupied by several top hotels. We recommended Imperial Mae Ping Hotel as your first choice for price-per-value reason. However, you may choose more luxury hotel like Le Meridien, which certainly more costly. We will provide transportation to pick up participants from Imperial Mae Ping Hotel to all events. Le Meridien hotel are located within a walking distance to Imperial Mae Ping Hotel. Other top hotels located within a walking distance to both the Imperial Hotel and night market, are Centara Duangtawan Hotel Chiang Mai (http://www.centarahotelsresorts.com/cdc/cdc_default.asp), and Royal Princess Chiang Mai Hotel (<http://www.dusit.com/dusit-princess/en/princess-chiang-mai.html>)

During this special opening session, we will learn about and appreciate His Majesty the King's Philosophy of Sufficiency Economy. The notion has been recognized and implemented by many global organizations seeking sustainable growth under various contexts. Ours will focus on Management Education.

Please feel free to visit google scholar and search under "sufficiency economy" to find plenty articles about this world heritage concept.

Suthep Hill Trekking Ceremony

Chiang Mai University is proud to hold this long tradition of welcoming new students to the campus. President, administrators, dean, faculty, students and alumni, more than 20,000 CMU associates, join a 17 kilometer trekking along Suthep Hill, where the most important temple of the province and Buddha's relic is located. Participants are invited to witness this energetic and meaningful ceremony in the morning of July 6. The free shuttle will be provided from the Hotel.
